

Please keep this law and enforce. Telemarketers are already violating this law as I have received calls recently that I definitely did not want to receive. Is there no sense of respecting someone's privacy by bothering them at home. Soon the telemarketers will win and start calling people on their cell phones too. Keep New Jersey's law strong.